HOBA

An eco-friendly third place in the heart of Martin Luther King Park, Paris 17, in the new Pont Cardinet neighbourhood. For a day or an evening, your teams escape into nature. HO and BA are two very different spaces: Le BA, a 19th-century forge at garden level, for seminars and parties all year round. Le HO, a belvedere with a panoramic terrace available in summer and a large glass hall available in winter.

Spaces

Le BA, le RDC

200 m² in two areas: the FORUM, a conference area that becomes a lounge at night, and the teaching kitchen, the cocktail area.

CATERING

HOBA's resident chefs

Eco-friendly cooking true to the venue's values: low carbon footprint and waste reduction. Finger-food buffets low in carbon and high in flavour.

A COMMITTED VENUE

The venue's project

HOBA is a place with a mission: food that is delicious, joyful and sustainable. Le HO, the Belvédère food court, brings together committed resident chefs who cook low-carbon dishes and cut their waste.

Le BA, a 19th-century forge restored for the project, hosts programming about food and sustainability.
